FACETIOUS.

Cabman: "Want a cab, sir?" Smart youth, glancing at horse: "No, I'm in a hurry."—Punch.

"The Charge of the Heavy Brigade" was about twelve dollars a month and rations for each man.—Punch.

Wife: "But, my dear, I shall catch cold coming down so late to let you in." Husband: "Oh, no, my love, I'll rap you up well before you come down."

A foolish man in Detroit removed his front gate so his daughter and ten boys could not swing on it every night, whereupon twelve cows came into his yard, broke down all his trees and ate up his garden and kicked a $25 watch-dog in the ear so that he died the next day.—Detroit Free Press.

Moses Schanberg has been annoyed by burglars prowling about his residence on the upper end of Austin Avenue. Yesterday he went into a gunshop to buy a pistol. "What kind of a weapon do you want?" "I would like one," said Moses, "with accommodations for six burglars."—Tulsa Office.

Two young fellows got to hanting each other the other day. "Fistly one of them exclaimed: 'Well, there is one thing, you trees and ate up his garden and kicked a $25 watch-dog in the ear so that he died the next day.—Detroit Free Press."

"Oh, nonsense," exclaimed the other; "why can't I?" "Because," dryly rejoined the first, "it is impossible to put a hoghead in to a barrel."

A story is told of an old gentleman who always took notes of his minister's sermon and on one occasion read them to the minister himself. "Stop, stop," said he at the occurrence of a certain sentence. "I didn't say that," "I know you didn't," was the reply; "I put that in myself to make the sense."—Golden Rule.

There is a wealthy brewer in Montreal who built a church and had it dedicated to "This church was erected by Thomas Molson at his sole expense." Hebrews xi.

Some of the McGill College boys got a ladder one night and altered the inscription up as to make it read: "This church was erected by Thomas Molson at his sole expense. He brews XX."—New York Post.

Audiences in the Park Theatre, Boston, will get a sprinkling in case the temperature rises to 155. Iron pipes have been placed throughout the building, and provided at short intervals with miniature turbine wheels, which will revolve rapidly under pressure of water from the city mains, throwing streams in all directions. Each sprinkler is covered with a cap fusible at the degree of heat mentioned. The theatre has 874 of them, placed to command the parts most exposed to fire.

"Where is the use of making so much fuss over the little eccentricities of others at the table?" exclaimed Fogg. "Why should humans make any more bother about such things than pigs?" "But you must remember that we are not used to dining with pigs," said Pigmy, appearing the last potato with his fork. "Some of us are not, and some of us are," replied Fogg. For some occult reason, everybody looked at Pigmy and smiled.—Boston Transcript.

There is an eminent painter in Paris who is economical and sentimental. The other day one of the students broke a pane of glass in the studio window and replaced it temporarily by pasting a sheet of paper over the aperture. When the painter came down next morning he thrust his cane through the makeshift, with the remark, "He that breaks a pane pays!" None of the class, however, took the hint, and next morning another sheet of paper was pasted across the window. It met the same fate. And so on the next day when the artist came down, there was the paper, as before. First flashed from his eye, and roaring, "He that breaks a pane pays!" he drove his cane through the paper—and the pane of glass behind it that had been put in by the students and then carefully pasted over with a sheet of paper.

LANGUAGE CANNOT DESCRIBE IT. Mr. Robert Gould, book-keeper for Walker & Macey, who are lumber dealers, recently said to our representative: "About one year ago I was taken with the genuine sciatica. I employed the best physicians, but they could only relieve me for the moment. Finally I used St. Jacobs Oil and it effected a complete cure."—Kenosha Reporter, Gardiner, Me.

If a man is absolutely wise he can get along with very little gravity. Gravity is the very best kind of a dull phool can play.—John Billings.

RESCUED FROM DEATH. William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1878 I was taken with BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. WILLIAM HALL'S BALM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle, and to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past."

I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take Dr. WILLIAM HALL'S BALM, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicine I have taken since my sickness.

Nonpareil looks bigger than pica when you see your name in the reports of a police court.—Merritt's Clipper.

If a man applies himself diligently to getting the juice out of an orange he generally sucks seeds.

TERRIBLE SUFFERINGS.

Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: "I have a friend who suffered terribly. I purchased a bottle of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and, as a result of its use, she is perfectly well. J. BAILEY, Bardett, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Purgative Pellets' purify the blood and cure constipation."

The four seasons—Foggy, salt, mustard and vinegar.—Yascoe Strauss.

Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir—For many months I was a great sufferer. Physicians could afford me no relief. In my despair I commenced the use of your 'Favorite Prescription.' It speedily effected my entire and permanent cure. Yours faithfully, Mrs. PAUL R. BAXTER, Iowa City, Ia.

Bliss on the half-shell—Bachelor and madhouse.

Mr. R. B. Johnson, business manager of the Houston (Texas) Post, has used St. Jacobs Oil with the greatest benefit for rheumatism, says the Galveston (Texas) News.
